OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER,
SHIMOGA DISTRICT.

Shimoga, 22nd July 1924.

Dear Sir,

151

In inviting reference to Orders of Government prohibiting Deputy Commissioners from Travelling in Motor Buses during their tours, I beg to state that I have found, by experience in this Malnad tracts, that it is sometimes not only dangerous but also impossible to travel in light Cars during the monsoon. Some parts of the roads will be flooded with water for several days and the light cars will not pull in the slushy portions after the water recedes, not to speak of the damage that will be done to the car. Further, there is the risk of the Car being capsized while rushing against the monsoonic wind, with hood on. The road in several places had nearly two feet of water running on it and had been clean washed off in other places and the road had partly been blocked up by fallen trees, as I found during inspection yesterday. As I have to be moving about frequently in connection with affording relief etc., due to floods I request that
